

REASONS YOU SHOULD BUY FLOWERS TODAY!

Your mother, father, girlfriend, boyfriend, or colleague would really enjoy receiving flowers from you

Its like yoga; breath in, breath out, buy very cool locally grown cut flowers. Feel better.

It can be your own private protest against anything that ticks you off

It supports global cooling...nothing is as cool as giving flowers

Guys will think you're hot. Gals will think you're hot.....sort of

It's good for your soul

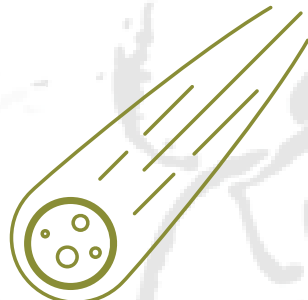

Dogs enjoy flowers, too. Who knew?

It's not as bad as going to the dentist or drinking wheat grass juice

You will be doing your part to support your local flower growing community (me in particular) and we will be ever appreciative

You never know, but you might get hit by a meteor tomorrow and you will have missed your shot at some really great locally grown flowers

Don't be that, "gee, I wish I had purchased some peonies when they were in season" guy or gal

It will make that corner spot on your kitchen counter very happy

What is missing here? ...friends, food, fine wine, and fl_____?

It is a proven fact that living people enjoy flowers more than dead people
